

UP COMING CLIMBING COMP

Jimmies Climbing Club is getting super pumped for the final round of the ICP Climbing Series, happening next weekend at our local climbing gym Rocksports. It's the biggest social competition in Australia and our 5th and final round is just around the corner! Round 5 of the ICP Climbing Series will be a Freestyle Boulder Comp. What is that you ask? Freestyle boulder is flowing boulder moves that will require you to be creative with your balance and momentum. Round 5 will be held on Saturday 14th November at Rocksports.

The ICP Series takes place over five social rock climbing competitions, held at five different climbing venues all over South East Queensland, Australia. Each event is focused around relaxed social climbing and offer completely different climbing formats and styles that are both visually impressive and create an exciting atmosphere.

Climbers can score freebies, prizes or podiums at every event.

Wishes these crushers a great time for Round 5!

Not a part of the Jimmies Climbing Club but keen to be participate at this awesome even? You can register via the competition platform Fingercomps <https://www.fingercomps.com/register/2015-icp-climbing-series-freestyle-bouldering->

Pictures from Round 4 of the ICP Climbing Series – Halloween Pumpfest

